

From Dance Enthusiast review of Patricia Guerrero's "Flash Mob" at Brookfield Place's Winter Garden – Flamenco Festival
Mar. 12, 2020
By Deirdre Towers
(hyperlinks are not active)

Aurora Reyes; Photo by Bjorn Bolinder, Courtesy of Brookfield Place

Tirado invited friends to join her on stage for the fin de fiesta. Aurora Reyes of Flamenco Latino was the first one out to celebrate. Having devoted her adult life to flamenco, Reyes milks the comic potential of Bulerías, the fast, sassy form counted in 12 that's traditionally performed at parties. She plays against any expectations for wild, flashy footwork by rounding her back in an endearing waddle. With her shoulders rolling, fingers pointing, she never fails to make us laugh.